

The bill under consideration by the FCC, submitted by the major phone carriers, will only result in a monopoly, which will eventually result in the control of information flow by a select few.

As a long time user of independent service providers and as a citizen, I strongly request the FCC rule in favor of full access to all of our Nation's communication lines, and more importantly the free flow of ideas.

Thank you.

Bill D. Hester